

Story Tools

Font size:

Online at TheStarPhoenix.com

THE STARPHOENIX NOVEMBER 5, 2011

ROUGHRIDERS

The 2011 Canadian Football League season most definitely did not go the way the Saskatchewan Roughriders - and their fans - hoped or anticipated it would.

With the campaign coming to a close on Friday versus the Edmonton Eskimos, it's time to look back at a lost season and start planning for the future.

For a complete post-mortem, head to our special section at The-StarPhoenix.com/roughriders.

BLOGS

Check out our newly designed blogs, along with the latest from our crew of Star-Phoenix bloggers. Among the topics and writers are City Hall beat reporter David Hutton, Saskatoon Blades coverage from Daniel Nugent-Bowman, the local music scene by Jeanette Stewart, the NHL with Open Ice Hitter, married life and parenthood with Janet French and more.

TECHNOLOGY

The Mars500 crew emerged from isolation Thursday after spending almost one and a half years locked away from the world at a Russian research centre in Moscow to test the effects of a flight to Mars on humans.

See pictures and video from the "mission" and "landing," and stay up to date with more science and technology news at TheStarPhoenix.com/technology.